NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

The Crown Room, that paragon of light and sound, welcomed the gathered Rotarians and our fourteen visiting Rotarians. Ken MacLeod offered the invocation and since Lionel Rowe was no where to be found the Scribe introduced the aforementioned visitors. Special Guests today included Joe Ditler and Howard Somers. Please make a point of meeting these folks as they are being considered for an invitation to join Rotary.

ROTARY ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Scott skipped the lawyer joke and gave us the Rotary Theme for 2007-2008: "Rotary Shares!" Do you have an idea for a project? Now is the time to see that dream come true, especially if it's in the areas of main concern to RI: Health, Literacy, and Clean Water. And, don't forget to turn the theme on its head and "Share Rotary."
2. Our two (operating and foundation) budgets were approved by the membership. We're going to raise and spend $92,550 for operations and raise $160,970 but only spend $152,920 in the foundation. Any questions? See Paul Plumb or attend Rotary II.
3. Speaking of Rotary II, it will be held on Thursday, July 26 at 5:30 p.m. at Ken MacLeod's house at 548 Marina.
4. We have a new executive secretary and her name is Jane Santino. Welcome aboard and thank you!

FINES AND RECOGNITION

1. What is it with the Chamber of Commerce types? First, Holly Shumate can't remember her award and now Anna Kerschner can't remember that she won the Lewis Hardy Award!
2. Rotary of Coronado has its newest Paul Harris Fellow and Ron Verneti has a new grandson. Wilder JAMES Verneti is our new PHF.
3. Kris Grant's Coronado Lifestyle Magazine was a target rich environment for President Scott and Gary Kennedy and Barry Thomas suffered on behalf of their dogs. They were both fined $75 but Gary got a discount because his dog does something other than roll a big ball around the park.
4. The Scribe (Dan Orr) got whacked for getting his mug on the cover of said Coronado Lifestyle Magazine and for penning an around the bay travelogue. The Scribe only wishes he could write as well as Kris Grant.
5. Head's up Bill Sandke! Your kids ratted you out and since UCLA doesn't have a real fight song you're going to have to sing the "Brush Your Teeth Song."
6. WHO AM I? Not to be outdone, Chris Kleber gave a quick PowerPoint of his life to this point. The highlights are a Vanderbilt education and a U of ILL dental degree and wife. They have two children and a very nice dental practice right across from the post office.

CARE AND CONCERN COMMITTEE

Rob Jones had successful back surgery and would enjoy hearing from his fellow Rotarians. He should be back in the fall.

Please contact Mary Sternad at 522-9452 or pssternad@aol.com for updates and information.

PROGRAM

Ross White introduced Hans Norden of Anticipated Outcomes for nice chat about, "How to Sink a Cruise Ship Barehanded." The Scribe thinks that the shipwreck story was a metaphor for business, either that or the lesson was, "make sure the cock valve" is closed. Hans' final piece of advice, "when you come to the fork in the road, take it!"
