NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

No Longer Respected President Scott asked Rotarian of the Day Joe Ditle to give the invocation, and it was a UVA Day starting with Lionel Rowe introducing the visiting Rotarians and ending with Jim Laslavic introducing his new station manager, and UVA grad, Jackie Bradford.

ROTARY NOTES OF INTEREST AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- The Rotary International Convention is in Los Angeles this year. It's a great opportunity for local Rotarians to see Rotary International up close and personal. Go to www.rotary.org to register, even if it's only for one day.
- Doug Metz and the Low Tide Ride & Stride committee would like you to pay attention to the flyers that they will have for the next few weeks. Pay particular attention to our new beneficiary and the ways in which you can help.
- If you signed up for Rotarians at Work Day this Saturday, and even if you didn't and want to help, please be on time for carpooling. We're meeting at 6:45 a.m. at Pomona Park.
- Red Badgers! Rotary Information II will be Tuesday, May 6 at 5:30 p.m. at Bob Shugert's house. If you need RI-II, call Bob and RSVP at 619-307-9750.
- Attendance. Bad news, we're last in the District. Good news, even if you have a hard time making Wednesdays you can make up at a Club near your work, or help out at our events. Flags on the Avenue, Beach Clean-up, Low Tide Ride, etc., all those count for attendance purposes.
- Pancake Breakfast: Good news, it came off swimmingly thanks especially to Ray Delagrave for saving our bacon, er, sausage. Bad news, not a single member of the assigned equipment breakdown group showed up on Sunday afternoon. Poor old Doug Weisbarth was standing there by himself looking at two four-hundred pound grills. Memo for next year: The Pancake Breakfast has always been and will always be an "all-hands" event. If there's a death in the family or you're out of the country you MIGHT be excused. Otherwise, pay attention to the handout and show up at your assigned spot. In an era of phones, emails, cell phones, and blackberrys there is no reason why any of your fellow Rotarians should find themselves standing on the curb wondering where their help is. Service Above Self, remember?

- Jeff Tyler presented our annual donation in support of Coronado scouting.
- Posters are available for the Low Tide Ride & Stride so see Gary Kennedy to get your for your business' window.
- P-E Al Ovrom wants you to Save the Date! Our annual Installation Dinner at the Hotel Del is Friday, June 27 th. More details to come!
- WHO AM I? Contrary to reports, not today's program! Joe Ditle made his way to Coronado in 1966 and after many visits (and swats) to Maury Shaw's office he actually made it through Coronado HS. He's had a career in journalism, photography, and public relations culminating in his current position as director of the Coronado Museum of History and Art. He particularly wanted to thank Maury Shaw, Paul Dodson, Ed Martin and Joe Rizza, and even Lionel Rowe, for keeping him on the straight and narrow.

The Family of Rotary

Please contact Mary Sternad at 522-9452 or psternad@aol.com for updates and information.

- Don't forget to visit Larry Wade at the Villa. If you give them twenty-four hours notice you can bust him out of there for coffee or Rotary.
- Matt Dalton's having a rough time and has to move to San Diego. Cards were circulated so we could cheer him up.

FINES & RECOGNITIONS

1. "President Dan?!" Yikes! What year is this? Sandy Boyce was given a $75 reminder that this is Rotary Year 2007-2008.
2. Pre-emptive post-emptive strike: Gerry Easton sent his check in last week for his April 26 birthday for which he was recognized in March. I can't figure it out either.
3. Art Wilcox was fined $75 for wearing a tie, I think. Maybe it was his birthday too.
4. For shooting his age, on the front nine, Bill Morgan got the standard birthday recognition. By the way, he turned the Big 8-0.
5. Bob Smyth ("don't call me Smythe") spent his Club anniversary in Africa working with Habitat for Humanity and the cure for cancer. At least he didn't meet with Hamas, that we know of.
6. Mike Connor spent his 50 th wedding anniversary at Rotary and honored it by donating one dollar per year.
7. Oh, the shame. Being beaten by a Plumb. Dan Runyon was in Kona for the Lavaman triathlon and did great, except not as great as Bob Plumb's daughter. $75.

PROGRAM

Kris Grant introduced our Coronado Director of Library Services, Christian Esquevin, who told us about his new book, "Adrian: Silverscreen to Custom Label." The book is a history of Hollywood fashion told through the designs of Gilbert Adrian who Christian credits with leading the movement of fashion leadership from Paris to Hollywood. The Scribe hopes the ladies enjoyed the program. The guys had no idea what he was talking about.

We're Serious about Sausage!

You go, JOE...

RAFFLE: You know them, you love them, and you can't live without them -- buy raffle tickets weekly.

The difference between "ordinary" and "extraordinary" is just a little "extra."
Now go out and be EXTRAORDINARY!
