NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

Past-president Dan Gensler called the "meeting" to order and asked the Right Reverend Scribe to do the invocation and lead the Pledge. Lionel Rowe introduced the three visiting Rotarians who made the mistake of picking today to make up. But, fifty-one weeks and six days after it started the long-run lawyer joke, Respected President Scott, came to an ignominious end.

ROTARY NOTES OF INTEREST AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- As proof that nobody ever reads the Corotator, dozens of planning guides for 2008-2009 have been turned in. If you are one of the two who actually read this and you haven't turned in your planning guide, please do so.
- Flags on the Avenue on the 4th of July. 7:00 a.m. meet at 1st & Orange to put the flags out. Meet again at 6:00 p.m. to take them down.
- We welcomed our favorite Del server, Judy Cash, back to work after some medical issues.

The Family of Rotary

Please contact Mary Sternad at 522-9452 or psternad@aol.com for updates and information.

- Don't forget to visit Larry Wade at the Villa. If you give them twenty-four hours notice you can bust him out of there for coffee or Rotary.

FINES & RECOGNITIONS

1. The Squire, now "Doctor" Walt Heinecke was recognized, again, for receiving his doctorate education from USD.
2. Keeping in the education mode, Jon Ryan donated $100 to start a Paul Harris Fellowship for a son who just received his MBA from Stanford (the Harvard of the Farm).

PROGRAM

It is the end of the year so there are a few odds and ends to clean up. First, the committee of one half men, Ken MacLeod and Paul Plumb, presented the "Best Program" award and this year's winner was Gary Ridge, CEO of WD-40.

Because Greg Walker foisted "Home Health Care" on an unsuspecting Club for these many years; he is the perpetual keeper of the Gong Award, and he gets to share it with the individual who did the best to emulate Greg's race to the program abyss by bringing us the worst program of the year. While stinkers were worthy candidates, Ross White's pratfall while introducing one of the nominees tipped the scale to him. Congratulations Ross!

The Not Quite Ready for Prime Time Players convened a kangaroo court to try Respected President Scott for crimes against Rotary and humanity. The bailiff (Dean Eckenroth) called the court to order and Judge Fast Eddie Hang 'em Hi Line (Ed Lohlein) was seated. Presenting the prosecution's case was DA Suzanne Popp-Copp-don't call me Bailey or Seney and the lawyer for the defense was Robbe Plumbo (Les Arndt). The charges: Misappropriation of Rotary funds, Conduct unbecoming a Rotary officer, Impersonating a woman and indecent exposure, and polygamy. In order to get to the bottom all this Sergeant at Arms Doug Weisbarth was empowered to place Respected President Scott house arrest. Having no handcuffs, stocks were provided by our resident stockbroker, Tim Cusick. Witnesses were called to testify to the charges, Bill Gise described in pictures how the $1 table donations each week were laundered by Respected President Scott. Ms. Alexandra Dupree of New York (Dan Gensler) related how Respected Client #10 engaged in conduct unbecoming! Agent 00 (Ken MacLeod) was brought from Scotland with kilt to demonstrate how Respected President was impersonating a woman and exposing himself. Finally, Chief Lou Scanlon presented photographic evidence from the Salt Lake City Convention of Respected President Scott and his many wives (got off the best ad lib of the day). By acclamation Respected President Scott was found guilty of charges and sentenced to a lifetime of the boring company of the past-presidents.

Respected President Scott received an opportunity to address the "jury of his peers" and thanked everyone for the fine Rotary work they did this year. Thanks to you, Respected President Scott was a very fun year!

Now, on to "Al in Wonderland!"
