NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

President Al called on Rotarian of the Day Dave Fleck to give the invocation. Now, let's see. "Li Rowe? No." "Walt Heinecke? No!" Who will introduce the visiting Rotarians? Why, President Al himself. Suffice it say that the mob is clamoring for Lionel. He may not pronounce the names corr but at least he knows to read the make up slip from the bottom, up.

ROTARY NOTES OF INTEREST AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- In typical Rotary of Coronado fashion only 50% of the planning guides have been turned in. could get costly if you haven't turned yours in.
- Speaking of "costly." Annual dues should be in the mail this week. Prompt payment would b appreciated.
- The ever-elusive Coronado Rotarian of the Year for 2008 finally showed up at a Rotary meet Steve Haley presented our highest honor to Dave Johnson. Good choice! Worth the wait, now that you're a big shot how about showing up at the Installation Dinner?!
- Greg Walker did the honors and inducted our two newest members, one of whom owns a t Mike O'Connor owns Island Sports & Spirits and was sponsored by John Ovrom. Jim Loiselle sponsor is Patty Cowan and he joins Rotary in the classification of defense.
- Playing the part of Tim Cusick, Ivan Dunn announced Beach Clean-up this Saturday at the time and place. Dave Johnson will bring donuts, or he'll have to give the green jacket back
- WHO AM I? Dave Fleck was born in North Dakota, spent four years in Minnesota, four year Oregon, four years in college in Washington, four years at Hughes Aircraft, sixteen years (4: running his dad's plastics company, four years running his friend's plastic company, and nov rest of his life running his boatyard on Shelter Island.

The Family of Rotary

Please contact Mary Sternad at 522-9452 or psternad@aol.com for updates and information.

- Don't forget to visit Larry Wade at the Villa. If you give them twenty-four hours notice you bust him out of there for coffee or Rotary.

FINES & RECOGNITIONS

1. President Al in Wonderland was selling indulgences again today. So, here's the deal, if you confess to anything you owe $75. If you sat at one of the tables you owe $1. If you scooted owe $2. If it was your birthday, send money. If it was your anniversary, send money. Do yo the trend here?
2. Ed Lohlein showed up in a green jacket thinking he was getting the Retiree of the Year (RC Award, or thinking he'd just won the Masters. What he won was a $75 fine, which will be tot a retiree on a fixed income.
3. Jan Plumb quickly copped a plea and was fined "only" $50 for completing another section c John Muir Trial. We believe the discount was given because she left Tim Cusick out there.
4. No good deed goes unpunished! New Rotarian of the Year Dave Johnson was fined $75 for showing up when he was supposed to at the Installation Dinner.
5. In lieu of having his roast video posted on U-Tube, Scott Metzger paid $75.

PROGRAM

They continue to play "Hide the Program" with the Scribe. Today's last minute fill-in was Gary Lati lawyer/real estate broker, who spoke to us about the national housing crisis. We don't really have crisis with housing, but some have a crisis in paying for their housing, which is causing a bit of a p for the rest of us. Ken MacLeod disclosure: "Wells Fargo rocks, Countrywide sucks!" Gary review strategies for avoiding foreclosure if one is upside down on their mortgage. Upside down being de as owing more on the mortgage than the house is worth. Said strategies involved getting home lo and credit card debt down to a manageable level, and by inference, getting attorneys' fees up! Mr Laturno did lament that most people have no idea what's in their loan documents. That's because eyes will glaze over if you try to read all that boilerplate. Thanks to Walt Heinecke for bringing tl timely speaker.
