NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

Heard you missed us, so we came back! If you missed the Christmas party it's been four weeks without Rotary. How did we ever manage? Toxic Leader President Al asked John Klinker to offer the year's first invocation and John hit one out of the park. Mike Woiwode led us in the ever-appropriate "Zip-a-de-do-dah," and the Scribe did the honors on visiting Rotarians. Oh, and by the way, Happy New Year!

ROTARY NOTES OF INTEREST AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- On January 22, 2009 those who would like a very unique Rotary experience are asked to make themselves known to President Al. This is an opportunity to host, for dinner, a visiting District Governor Elect from somewhere around the world. Sign up at the district website which is accessible from our website.
- It's a sign of the times. Lunch tickets have gone up to $22.00. You can save a few bucks when you buy a book of 10 for $200. Coffee tickets are still $5.00 or 10 for $50.
- Tim Cusick reported on a great Christmas party with special thanks to Bob Shugert, Jeff Tyler

- from Lamb's, and Walt Heinecke who did Santa Claus for the 20 th year.
- If you wanted to attend the Paul Harris Gala, too late, unless you REALLY want to go then call Art Wilcox and beg.
 - Our annual donation to Coronado Little League was gratefully accepted by Mark McNary.
 - Barry Thomas had a hand in inviting Rotarians to attend the first "Community Friend Raiser" at Coronado High School on January 13 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
 - Toys for Tots was such a great success that Mary Griffin reported that the Marines had to go back for a second truck.
 - According to Ivan Dunn someone named "Mark Rutherford" is now in charge of beach cleanup. We won't have Tim Cusick to kick around anymore and with luck BOB Rutherford will actually take over with able assistance from the aforementioned Ivan Dunn.
 - Time to sign up for the ever-popular Rotary Night at the Opera. Ross White is the wagonmaster, as usual.

FINES & RECOGNITIONS

1. Christmas is over, time to pay up, Chumps! Ross White spent fourteen days in Vietnam and Cambodia and recommends it highly. Ed Martin thought he'd pass. Been there, done that! $75
2. Win Prescott was just happy to have unloaded an apartment building without losing his shirt. $75
3. Russ Johnson got a pass for his three weeks in Antarctica, but the two weeks on the Nile in Egypt cost him. $75
4. The Scribe thought Jim Laslavic looked resplendent in Cardinal & Gold today. And, to his credit, Laz had lots of nice things to say about the putative #1 team in the nation, The Mighty USC Trojans! $75
5. Somebody got a deal. They both have to pay $75 for their club anniversaries, but Jeff Tyler spread it out over four years while John Wells gets to amortize his over thirty-three years.

PROGRAM

Walt Heinecke introduced his colleague Dr./Col. George Reed for a discussion on "Toxic Leadership." Dr. Reed covered a lot of ground in describing situations we've all faced where an organization's leader was doing more harm than good. He suggested the "4-F Theory" on why we work for someone: Funds, Fun, Fellowship, and Feeling. And, if anyone of those is lacking it better be made up in a big way by one of the remaining "Fs" or it's time to get the heck out of there. He also observed that these "toxic leaders" had a propensity to "kiss-up and kick down" which is why they survived and in many cases were promoted. We never did get to inquire on where Pete Carroll fit in all this.

Don't forget! Beach Clean up is Saturday, January 10th!
