NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE:

The ever-elusive President Dan'I was back in the house and just in time for Veterans Day. Congratulations and thanks to all our Rotarian veterans for their service to our country. Georgia Ellis as Rotarian of the Day gave the invocation and Don Woolfolk introduced our two visiting Rotarians. Don and another of our veterans, Dan Hutchison, handled microphone duty and while Dan the Doc appreciated the recognition as a veteran he did note that he'd never been shot at by anyone who wasn't a patient. Yesterday being the Marines' 234 th birthday, Dave Knop led the singing of the Marine Hymn. (Please note that EVERYONE knew all of it as opposed the "Anchors Aweigh" which only the Navy guys were able to sing last month on the Navy's birthday.)

PROGRAM

Cliff Bee introduced, finally, SDSU head women's basketball coach Beth Burns and if her basketball program is as great as her Rotary program they should be in good shape out on Montezuma Mesa. Coach Burns has seventeen years as a head coach including a previous stint at SDSU and some time at Ohio State. She is the winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history and was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year last year. The Aztecs play a great schedule this year and Coach Burns made an offer you can't refuse: If you've never seen women's basketball make yourself known to Cliff Bee and your first Aztec game is on Coach Burns. SDSU opens next Tuesday against crosstown rival USD and they will unfurl last year's championship banner and it will be a benefit for Project Walk.

RAFFLE: You know them, you love them, and you can't live without them -- buy raffle tickets weekly.

The difference between "ordinary" and "extraordinary" is just a little "extra."
Now go out and be EXTRAORDINARY!
