"Rotarians at Work" Day

DG Bob Watson

NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE

President Bill asked the one-year-old Sally Bixler to give an invocation and lead the Pledge. Lionel Rowe only had the names of four visiting Rotarians to butcher, but somehow he managed. Maryann Berta offered a Pavlov Dessert from Tartine's for auction, the proceeds to go to 1000 Smiles. In a Pavlovian response Bud Forrest bid $80 and took the dessert home. No sharing.

ROTARY NOTES OF INTEREST and ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. There were no Rotary announcements today as President Bill was too busy separating various Rotarians from their hard-earned cash.
2. Actually, there were two semi-Rotarian announcements. The first concerned La Mesa Rotary's Fourth Annual Comedy Night at Sycuan starring Steve Kelley (The political cartoonist that Rotarian of the Year Lew Barnum did NOT offend). It's August 25 and tickets are $45. All proceeds benefit 1000 Smiles.
3. Harriet Sangrey, in anticipation of September's prostate screening, invited all the a "Meet the Physician" seminar entitled, "Men's Health: Below the Belt." It's August 18 at the new Coronado Recreation Center. Please RSVP as it will be "standing room only" for this event.
4. That's two, but President Bill also wants Day at the Races participants, so either sign up or he'll mandate that the Board attend.

MEMBERSHIP

THE FAMILY OF ROTARY

Scott Metzger's father passed away last week and the Club extends its condolences to the Metzger family.

RECOGNITIONS

1. Gerry Easton made the $50 mistake of addressing President Bill as "President Steve."

2. It was $75 for the tour of Greece because the exchange rate with the Euro is so bad, $75 for the tour of London since the exchange rate with the Pound is so good, and $50 for being smart enough to not ride the London subway. Spiro Chaconas did the grand tour to celebrate his tenth anniversary including a return to the site of his wedding along with the results of that day.
3. Dick Parker was only the second oldest at his table and was fined $89. One dollar for each of the birthdays he's celebrating tomorrow.
4. Ron Beaubian, no longer under the protection of RI, was whacked $75 in honor of his 29 years in Rotary and a $25 bonus fine for talking back to the president.
5. Bob Smyth made a $75 announcement about the opening of Lamb's "Pump Boys and Dinettes." He guarantees the funniest musical ever or your money back.
6. Bill Betzer was fined $75 for NOT giving us "The Life and Times of Bill Betzer, part 7" but instead reporting on the hurricanes as viewed from Key West.
7. Let's see. Are there any professional photographers around? Apparently, there was not one on the beach to take a picture of Ray de Lagrave and family, but there was one on the podium to fine him $75 for making a very bad choice.
8. Toby Fuller is now responsible for dredging up the International Fellowship of Yachting Rotarians. He earned this honor because he just finished "cruising the six western states." Inquiring minds are dying to know to which "six" western states one can sail. He still got fined $60. That's either $15 for each state that actually touches the ocean, or he was lost.
9. Dan Orr's fifteen minutes of fame are up. Someone finally produced the Competitor Magazine story on the Orr Family and the Rock and Roll Marathon. The fine was $100 for the proud father and small "o" optimist, but that means poor President Bill is going to be verbally abused during college football season.

PROGRAM

- Al Ovrom introduced our former congressman, county supervisor, and Mayor of Imperial Beach Brian Bilbray to bring us up to date on Washington DC. Suffice it to say DC has nothing on Enron by the Bay. Brian was given credit for getting money for Coronado to relieve the traffic problem on Orange Avenue. Gee, thanks. If we get more money will there be more traffic? He did regale us with stories of his political triumphs (beating Lionel Rowe in the IB mayor's race) and tragedies (having to work with "Comrade" Bob Filner). The perks included rides on Air Force One and a bulldozer in the South Bay. The only thing that worried your correspondent was when he opined that the true measure of citizenship was "how well you served government." I'm sure he misspoke.

RAFFLE: You know them, you love them, and you can't live without them --buy raffle tickets weekly.
