NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE: Our historical Rotarian was the creator of the Four Way Test, Herbert

Mr. Taylor created the Four Way Test during the depths of the Great Depression as a guide for his customers, and his suppliers. By the time Rotary adopted the Four Way Test in 1943 Mr. Taylor's aluminum company had waxed fat and prospered. He claimed he owed it all to the Four Way Test. and I suppose the buildup to WWII. Patty Cowen led our multi-cultural invocation and our Pledge. scribe got to introduce the visiting Rotarians in Squire Heinecke's tardiness.

NOTES OF INTEREST:

1. Rotarian of the Day Patty Cowen hails from Rochester, NY. She went to the University of Connecticut, pre-Ward Churchill, married the SUPPO, and finished as a Terp. Along the way she's had two children, traveled the world (courtesy of the US Navy), and now serves as Executive Director of the Connecticut Schools Foundation.
2. Chip Garry, Susan Bill, Aileen Oya, Dick Beh, Dwight Witt, and Marilyn Wheeler were "Special Guests" today. For our newer members: All our guests are "special," but when we introduce guests as "Special Guests" we are informing the membership that we're introducing someone who we think would be a good candidate for an invitation to join Rotary.
3. Don't forget that all your committee meetings count as make-ups. Just email Megan or Sharlene in the office and let them know. It's a Four Way Test deal. We could use the attendance credit.
4. This year's District Assembly will feature the official introduction of Bob Watson as our District Governor. Seventeen are already signed up. See President Steve if you're interested.
5. Tom Ahern of Coronado Youth Soccer thanked us for our annual donation. Your donations help support an organization that serves over 800 youths including 700 from Coronado.
6. Here's a little known fact from President Steve. Alex Smith of the University of Utah and Heinecke Trophy finalist fame was also a finalist in the District 5340 Four Way Test Speech Contest. President Steve did not explain what a college junior was doing at a high school speech contest. Maybe we don't educate them at UU; they just store them for four years.
7. RI Director Ron Beaubian leaves this weekend for India to lead a massive Polio Plus effort that will include volunteers from RI, NID, CDC, WHO, and UNICEF. (Full credit if you know what those acronyms stand for) Bottomline, Rotary and its partners will immunize 170 MILLION children in India next month.
